I am a cloth merchant & member of the firm of Chotmull Gohchand carrying business in Monohur Das Kishor - Calcutta - I know the 1st def - he is a coolie - I remember that 20th of last month - I engaged the def<sup>1</sup> as a coolie to carry load from the ground floor to my shop on the 1st floor - There were 2 other coolies employed besides def<sup>1</sup> - I was upstairs in my shop receiving the goods - My gomashta Dornar Lal was downstairs despatching the goods -

The pots were piece goods. The def I bought me a load of goods containing 30 pieces of jacquet - he bought as much - I didn't return that day - he bought the 1st load about 4 1/2 PM.
The other comes with buying goods - I need 14 packets all the time - I expected 20 - I got some information about 5 PM from my informant - I looked on def I in vain - I found 6 packets this morning - I saw informant to the Police - I saw def I in custody at 9 PM. He was bought some by Mr. Ashmun Bury - On the next day

I saw my property - at the Chambers 6 packets containing 30 pieces - This is the property of the Court - The value of it is £120/- All the pieces bear the mark 4086 - & the name of Kittewich Bullen & Co in large letters.

I bought them from Kittewich Bullen & Co's office on the 15th Oct.

I saw the def 2 first at the Chambers - I charge him on information - with respect to the property with respect to knowledge.

Crossed. Other facsimile like this is procurable for the same quantity - I haven't sold this quantity before -
